Holidays are special times to be shared with family and friends. Protect yourself and loved ones by following these safety tips. For more tips, see the SDPD papers on Home Security, Personal Safety and Security, and Vehicle Security on its website at www.sandiego.gov/police/pdf/crimeprevention/HomeSecurity.pdf, www.sandiego.gov/police/pdf/crimeprevention/PersonalSafetyAndSecurity.pdf, and www.sandiego.gov/police/pdf/crimeprevention/VehicleSecurity.pdf, respectively.

AT HOME

- Don't put large displays of holiday gifts in view of your windows or doors.
- Immediately after the holidays, mark new gifts with your California Driver License or ID number.
- Don't advertise what you got for Christmas by putting the boxes out on trash day. Break the boxes down or take them to the dump yourself.
- Don't open your door at the sound or a knock or bell. Know who's at your door before opening it. Install a wide-angle peephole in your front door so you can look out without being seen yourself.
- If you don't want to answer the door and don't want the person there to think that no one is home, say something like "We can't come to the door now," or "We don't open the door to strangers."
- Don't open the door to a delivery person unless you are expecting a package. Ask for the person's name and the name and phone number of the company. Call it to confirm the visit. Keep the door closed and locked in the meantime.

AWAY FROM HOME

- Lock all doors and windows, even if you will only be gone for a short time. Use deadbolts, dowels, or locking pins in sliding glass doors and windows to keep them from being pried open.
- Leave window blinds and curtains in their normal daytime positions without exposing any valuable items.
- Never announce your vacation plans or whereabouts on Facebook, Twitter, or other social networking sites. In a 2011 survey of 50 convicted burglars in the United Kingdom, 40 said that social media was being used to identify properties with absent owners.
- Wait until you get home to post your vacation blog and photos. Remove geotags with a metadata removal tool if you publish photos on the Internet while you are away. Even better, turn off the geotagging feature on your smartphone.
- Leave lights and a TV or radio on when going out for an evening to make it appear that you are at home.
- Use timers on lights, radios, TVs, etc. to make them go on and off during the day and night to make your home appear occupied.
- Stop mail delivery, or have neighbor pick it up. (This also helps to prevent identity theft.)

- Stop newspaper delivery or have neighbor pick them up. Also have neighbor pick up anything left at your door, on your driveway, or elsewhere.
- Keep grass watered and cut. Water and trim other landscaping.
- Ask the neighbors to watch your home and report any suspicious activities.
- Invite a neighbor or family member of park a vehicle in your driveway.
- Leave your itinerary with a neighbor so you can be contacted in an emergency.
- Disconnect your electric garage door opener and padlock the door, preferably on the inside.
- Lock or otherwise secure all pet doors that a person might crawl through.
- Install a good side-yard gate and keep it locked at all times. Side and back entries are the most common access points for burglars.
- Visit your local SDDP Area Station to request vacation home checks when you'll be out of town.
- Set your burglar alarm and notify your alarm company that you will be away. Then if an alarm occurs when you are away the company will not call your home first to verify the alarm; it will notify the police directly. Also provide the alarm company with an up-to-date list of persons to contact about the alarm and the need to secure your home after a burglary.
- If you have a house or pet sitter, familiarize that person with your home's security systems and procedures and stress the importance of following them.

WHEN DRIVING AND PARKING

- In a lot, park as close a possible to the store entrances, preferably in view of a security camera. Avoid parking near trucks, vans, camper shells, dumpsters, and other objects that obstruct visibility and provide hiding places. Also avoid parking near people who are loitering or sitting in vehicles. Check that no one is near your vehicle before you get out.
- In a garage, park where you don't have to use stairs or elevators.
- If you use valet parking, don't leave your home keys on a chain with your vehicle keys. Also, don't leave your garage door opener where it is easily accessible. Keep your vehicle registration, proof of insurance, and any other papers with your home address on them where they are not likely to be found.
- At night, park in a well-lighted area.
- Remember where you parked so you can return directly to your vehicle.
- Lock your vehicle, and make sure the windows are closed. Never leave anything in plain sight, not even empty bags or boxes. Conceal all navigation aids, cellular phones, audio systems, sunglasses, etc. inside your vehicle. Put cameras, packages, sports equipment, firearms, hand tools, and other valuables in the trunk before you park, never after you park. Thieves may be watching. And take anything you can't afford to lose with you, e.g., a wallet, purse, or laptop computer. Thieves don't break into vehicles unless they plan to steal them or take what's visible inside.
- Never leave children alone in your vehicle.
- Be alert and walk away purposefully. Avoid walking near strangers loitering or sitting in vehicles.
- Have someone escort you to your vehicle if you are concerned about safety. Or wait until other people you can walk near.
- Don't approach your vehicle alone if there are suspicious people nearby.
- Don't overload yourself with packages. Use a cart or shop with a partner who can help carry packages. There is safety in numbers.
- Be aware of your surroundings and the people around you. Don't be distracted while walking to your vehicle. This includes fumbling with your purse or packages, looking for keys, and using a cell phone. Have the key in hand when you approach your vehicle. The key can be used as a defensive weapon if necessary.
- Check that no one is hiding in or around your vehicle before you get in.
- If a van has parked next to your vehicle, enter on the other side.
- Lock the doors immediately after getting in your vehicle.
- Don't resist or argue with a person who wants to steal your vehicle. Your life is much more valuable than your vehicle.

WHEN SHOPPING

- Shop during the day. If you must shop in the evening, shop with a friend.

- Dress casually and comfortable. Don't wear flashy or expensive jewelry.
- Carry only the charge cards you will need. Don't carry large sums of cash. When charging an item, make sure you get your card back. Use a credit card when possible.
- Bring home all transaction receipts. Never or throw them in public trashcans. Dispose of them at home after matching them against your monthly statements. Look for charges you didn't make. Notify your card companies or financial institutions immediately of any you find.
- Report all lost or stolen cards immediately and request cards with new numbers. Keep a record of all credit card numbers and the customer-service phone numbers you should call. Put it in a safe place.
- Carry purses next to your body with the purse flap against you and locked or zipped. Use a strap that goes diagonally across your body. Carry wallets in front or inside pockets. Purses and wallets are prime targets of thieves.
- Don't get distracted and leave your purse or wallet on a transaction counter or in a shopping cart.
- Don't hesitate to notify store security if you see any suspicious people or activities.
- If you have to wait for a ride, wait in a busy, well-lighted place.
- If you are a victim of a crime, call 911 to report it police immediately.

CHILDREN

- If possible, leave them at home with a trusted sitter.
- Have them stay with you at all times. Tell them not to wander off, leave the store, or hide. Don't get distracted by the sights, sounds, and crowds.
- Accompany them to restrooms.
- Never leave them at a video arcade, food court, toy store, or play area as a convenient "babysitter." Personnel in those areas are not there to watch children.
- Never leave them alone in your vehicle.
- If you allow an older child to go off without you, have him or her go with a friend and set a time for them to return or meet you at a designated place. Also, agree on what to do if plans change.
- Tell them to go to the nearest uniformed security guard or salesperson with a nametag and ask for help if they become separated. Show these people to your children when you enter the store or walk through a mall.
- Make IDs for them to carry in their pockets.
- Report a missing child immediately if you get separated. Carry a recent color photo and describe the clothes he or she is wearing. Contact store or mall security first. Call 911 if the child is not found soon.
